U. S. Offered Billion Dollars For American Merchant Marine: Lasker Confers With Bidders

Columbia Postal Supply
Company Revealed As Heading Interests to Buy Big U. S. Fleet.

TERMS ARE NAMED

Washington, May 29.—Shipping Board members left for New York today to confer with interests which yesterday submitted a bid approximating one billion dollars for the American merchant fleet.

Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board appointed Board Members O'Connor, Lissner and Smith, head of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, to discuss the offer with the interests that made it.

While in New York the committee will also meet several other bidders. Lasker refuses to give any information of the identity of the interests making the one billion dollar bid. He stated, however, that they were solid and substantial men with plenty of financial backing. The bid was accompanied by an offer to deposit at once $1,000,000 as an evidence of good faith.

Washington, D. C., May 29.—The Columbia Postal Supply Company of Silver Creek, Tonawanda County, New York, was today revealed by Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board as the bidder of over one billion, fifty-one million dollars for the Shipping Board Merchant Fleet.

The offer was made by John Black, President of the Company, subject to acceptance any time up to July 1. Payment of fifty-one million dollars would be made by October 1, 1923 and fifty million dollars yearly thereafter in quarterly installments until the sum is paid; all deferred payments would bear interest at 4 1/2 per cent.

Jacob Burge, Veteran Of Civil War, Answers Last Roll Call Today

Jacob Burge, a veteran of the Civil War, and one of Clearfield's best known and most highly respected citizens, died suddenly at the home of his daughter-in-law Mrs. Wayne Burge, on West Front street, about 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Burge, who was about 78 years of age, was taken sick on Friday and while not regarded as seriously ill continued to become weaker each day until about one o'clock when he collapsed and passed away suddenly.

Jacob Burge was a good citizen in the fullest sense of the term. He was a member of the famous Ricketts' Battery during the Civil War and possessed a most enviable war record. He was the last member of his family, his wife, daughter and son having preceded him to the grave, and he made his home with his daughter-in-law.

Highway Department Cautions People Against Recklessness Tomorrow

Harrisburg, Pa., May 29.—Extreme caution in the handling of motor vehicles tomorrow, Memorial Day, was suggested today by State Highway Commissioner Paul D. Wright to the eight hundred thousand or more owners of automobiles. The casualties of the holidays on the highways have been increasing rapidly for the past few years, the Commissioner stated.

Misses Gladys and Olive Long, of Williamsport, spent the week end with the Misses Kittelberger at their home corner of Martin and New streets.

ATTENTION AMERICAN LEGION BAND MEMBERS

Please arrange to be at the rooms at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

GOVERNOR SMITH PUTTING UP GREAT BLUFF AT STUDYING QUESTION OF WHETHER HE WILL SIGN "WET" BILL

Albany, N. Y., May 29.—A deluge of wet and dry propaganda literature is pouring into the office of Governor Al Smith—latest battle ground of prohibition.

The Governor, sphinx-like, sits at his desk reading what he can and examining statistics which may influence him either to pass or kill the repealer for the state enforcement act, already passed by the state Legislature.

Indications that the Governor will ignore the sentiments of President Harding expressed by the chief executive in a letter condemning the repealer was seen by his friends today.

While the Governor refuses to drop the slightest word that may be taken as an indication of what he may do, his friends now say that he is approaching the problem from a state viewpoint only. If he has reasons to believe the sentiment of the state's forces rebel at the prohibition act and representatives of the Legislature are 70 per cent anti-prohibition—Smith will sign the bill and let Presidential aspirations, national politics and such take their course.

BROPHY JUMPS ON BRENNAN CHARGES WITH BOTH FEET

Affirms Statement That
Somerset Job Is Costly
But Says He Could Not
Do All That Is Charged.

EXPLAINS RULES

Yesterday The Progress published a statement from the pen of J. S. Brennan, secretary of the Somerset County Coal Operator's Association, which we said in an editorial called for a reply. We had little doubt that Mr. Brophy would be on the ground quickly with a reply for Brophy is a fighter and loves a scrap. He can usually hold his own in any controversy and he comes back strong in a statement which he left at The Progress office at noon today. Herewith is the statement. In this game of checkers it is Mr. Brennan's move and he is some artist if he can see a jump.

"Speaking for the Somerset County Coal Operator's Association, a body of operators who practice organization themselves but deny that right to their employees, J. S. Brennan, secretary, has issued a statement that is as check-full of misinformation as any statement can well be.

What are the facts?
The strike in Somerset County is not an outlaw strike. It was called on the authorization of the International Policy Committee, consisting of representatives from every mining district in the United States, and neither that body, nor the International Executive Board, nor the International officers have asked that it be discontinued. It is true that District No. 2 is financing the strike at present, but there is nothing irregular or strange about that. It might be interesting to know that the assessment levied to carry on the strike was continued by a referendum vote of the mine workers of District No. 2, in February, 1923, and that on April 21st, the District Convention again voted to continue the strike as long as the Somerset County miners so desire.

Mr. Brennan's ignorance of the mine workers organization affairs is colossal. He assumes that I am a candidate for International President and then proceeds to outline my campaign. It's a fine scheme. The only trouble with it is that it won't work.

But why all this noise about Somerset County if there are only 1,157 men on strike? If there were only 1,157 striking miners in Somerset County (which is not the case), and if it were true that I could scatter that number into a large number of small locals (which I can't do) and each local sent a delegate to the National Convention in January, 1924 (which they can't afford to do because the local pays the delegate's expenses), those delegates couldn't vote for any

Mr. Woertendyke constitutes the second division of the Flying Squadron.

Wednesday afternoon he will hold a law enforcement conference. The meeting of the afternoon will be opened with an address in which the following questions will be answered:

1. Why the necessity of a law to enforcement of the Prohibition National Amendment?
2. What are the economic, moral and social benefits to be derived from the enforcement of the prohibition policy?

"MUST REVIVE FLAME OF PATRIOTISM"—OWSLEY

By ALVIN OWSLEY
National Commander, American Legion.
ON this day, sacred to the memory of America's brave fighting men who lie buried in the cemeteries of Europe and America, the American Legion joins the great body of American citizenry in reverent tribute.

At home and in the lands across the seas, Legion men, the comrades in battle of those who sleep, are making pilgrimages to the burial places to strew upon their graves the flowers of remembrance.

As we pause in reverence at the shrines of our hero dead, a feeling of our own unworthiness must manifest itself. Our comrades have made the highest sacrifice; they have given their lives to perpetuate the ideals of peace and good will.

The cause for which they died has not prevailed. We who survived the fight have been unable to accomplish the holy tasks bequeathed to us by those who fell.

This Memorial Day should mark the re-creation of our endeavors toward instilling in this nation and the world the spirit of the men who died for us. In our own country we must revive that flame of patriotism which burned brightly during the days of strife and in the world the unity of sentiment that existed among allied peoples fighting for their homes and freedoms against the advance of a militaristic power. If our efforts are not turned toward the achievements of these high ideals, we break faith with those whose memory we reverence today.

The American Legion was founded to preserve for posterity the spirit that led the finest men in our land to sacrifice their all for a great and noble cause.

Its program is based on a broad conception of peacetime service to the community, state and nation.

It has thrown the weight of its influence on the side of the right during the uncertain days following the return to America of our overseas fighters and has assisted in preserving the nation from the perils of those sinister forces which have brought disaster and ruin to the largest nation in the world and which today threaten many other lands.

Members of the Legion have caught the torch thrown to them by their falling comrades and will bear it on, lifting men and nations to the higher ground.

MOUNTAIN BLAZE IS STILL KEEPING 100 MEN FIGHTING FIRE

Almost Entire Acreage
of the Punxsy Hunting Club Burned Over; Attempt to Find Firebug.

A PUBLIC OUTRAGE

The forest fires on the mountains north of town continue to burn despite the efforts of a company of nearly one hundred fire fighters who have been working night and day since the fire was set out by incendiaries Sunday afternoon.

Almost every one of the 4400 acres owned by the Punxsutawney Hunting Club has been burned over and much valuable young timber and small game destroyed. Thanks to the valiant efforts of the men employed by the State Forestry Department and the crew under the personal direction of President H. C. Bowers of the Punxsutawney Club, the fire was under control this morning on the side of the burned area, which extends from the Big Prairie to the McGee end of the Four Mile Road north to the Caledonia Pike and away down the Green Ridge between Cold Stream and Trout Run.

No effort has been made thus far to ferret out the firebug suspect in this disastrous blaze but a strenuous effort will be made to run down the perpetrator of the outrage when the fire is finally conquered.

SIX KILLED IN ILLINOIS POWDER PLANT

Carle, Ill., May 29.—Six men were killed and many persons injured in a dynamite explosion at the Aetna Powder Plant at Sayville, Illinois, according to advices reaching this city. All wire communication with Sayville and surrounding towns was destroyed. The cause of the explosion has not been determined.

"HURRY, HURRY, HURRY"

This warning is sent out to the hundreds of Clearfield people who failed to see the show bearing this name when it was produced here a couple of weeks ago. People did not fail to see the show on its initial production because they were not interested but because standing room was at a premium. This second showing, or return engagement, is not being staged simply for the purpose of garnering in additional shakels but for the purpose of adding to the funds of the County Tuberculosis Society.

"Hurry, Hurry, Hurry" was put on by the dramatic club of the St. Francis High School and made a great hit with those who saw it. The school authorities have sanctioned the giving of the show again for the purpose of aiding the Tuberculosis Society and the players and cast have willingly agreed to do their stunts again for the same purpose.

Ticket sellers will be on the wing from now until Friday night, the evening of the show, and everybody approached should purchase a ticket.

Mrs. George A. Jacobs, of Chicago, wife of the inventor of the J & J Wind Shield Hinge, (look on the Jitneys) who was attending to some business in the East, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday with her brother, W. Emmett Mather and family in East Clearfield.

9:45 Decoration of graves of soldiers by delegation of American Legion and other veterans' organizations.

Those who go to the exercises at Hillcrest cemetery tomorrow morning will enjoy the novelty of hearing Lincoln's Gettysburg address read by one who heard the immortal President give it. John A. Stock was but a lad of nine years when the battle of Gettysburg was fought. He took refuge with the soldiers participating in that battle and was under fire at various times. His home was in the village as was also that of Mrs. Stock, who was then a wee bit of a girl. During the battle Mrs. Stock was in hiding in the cellar of her home. When the smoke of battle had cleared away Mr. Stock was reunited with his family and at a later date when Mr. Lincoln came to Gettysburg to make his now-to-be-forgotten address, like a normal boy of his age, John was right up front and has a distinct recollection of that historic event. He remembers that the big speech of the day was made by one, John Everett, who spoke for an hour and fifteen minutes. Mr. Everett said a great deal but it is forgotten. Lincoln spoke for only a very few minutes and his words have echoed throughout the world.

Rolling Stone Bridge Will Be Completed In 30 Days Says Engineer

County Surveyor McDonald was over from DuBois today and accompanied State Engineer Spague down the river to the Rolling Stone and Deer Creek bridges, for the purpose of inspecting the work and attempting to decide just when these bridges will be opened to traffic. They report the Rolling Stone bridge is rapidly nearing completion and will be opened for traffic in about 30 days. At Deer Creek the iron work for one span of the bridge is in place but no time for its completion has been fixed thus far.

Bleachers Being Put Up Today to Provide for Comfort of Crowd that Will Attend Big Meet.

LOCAL MEN READY

By DICK LEIPOLD

Everything is all set for the biggest and best athletic meet ever held in this section of Pennsylvania. The pick of scholastic track talent from the leading schools of this district will arrive tomorrow morning and make ready for the events in the afternoon.

The events will be run in the following order. Promptly at 1:15 the 1 mile marathon over the Second stage course will start, with the finish in front of the grandstand. The winner of this race will receive the "Progress" Marathon Watch. While this race is going on the high jump will start. The 120 high hurdles trials follow, as do the century trial heats. Then a distance run, the mile, will be run. The next event will be the final in the 120 hurdles and the 100 yard dash final. The half mile run, trials for the 220 dash, 220 low hurdles and 440 yard dash, then finals in the dash and hurdles bring the program to the final event, the mile relay. The Relay promises to be the most exciting race of the afternoon, as both teams are entered and at least half of these teams are known to have a 50-50 chance of winning. Captain R. William Thompson Relay Captain to the winning team.

The field events will start right after the high jump, and in the order indicated below, will be run off: Hammer throw; 2 discus; 3 pole vault; 4 Javelin; 5 shot put; 6 broad jump.

The program as arranged above keeps the interesting events well spread out thru the meet and is also "kind" to the athletes who are entered in several events.

Clearfield School Score as a Team. The local school should tally a half hundred points thru the performance of the entire squad. If Coach Reed's lads come thru in actual competition as well as they show up in practice, Captain "Swede" Johnson will enter the mile and a half mile in his main events, and is a favorite to win both runs.

"Hody" Johnson is counted on to place in the 100, 220, 440 and broad jump. Other C. H. S. dash men should get in the finals are Frank Witherow and Ken Barnie. Clearfield will make a strong bid toward the hurdles title, in both the high and low timbers. Under the coaching of Bud Mahaffey, "Muckle" Moore, Max Phillips and Art Kane have developed real form and should be able to equal if not better the 220 hurdle mark of 28.2.

Wilson and Pearce are the "high hikers" in the 120 race. The Red and Black distance relay team, consisting of R. M. Clure, Kephart and Maurey. These lads are all counted on to register points in the lengthy events. In the 440 Coach Reed has a number of men that may run. Jack Mohney, Barnie, "Swede" Johnson, or Mourey are all capable, heady runners and any one of them if entered will be among the medal winners. The weight events will be pretty well taken care of by Betts, Bowes, K. Witherow and "Swede". Carns and Moore should place in the discus, while Bob Carnes will make the javelin throwers do some mean flinging to get a "first" over him. The Relay Team that will represent C. H. S. will probably be "Hody" Johnson, Ken Barnie, Jack Mohney and "Swede" Johnson. However, conditions may arise that will cause a change in the betwixt ranks. A number of other Clearfield athletes will make their bow to Clearfield fans and some stars may be uncovered before the meet.

Bleachers for Spectators. Several sections of bleachers are being erected directly opposite the cinder track. If everyone is seated, all of the events can be seen, as the participants will be kept on the open.

As Graves Increase, His Task Grows Harder

Kearney, N. J., May 30.—Taps is sounding nearly every month for William Stead's old cronies.

Year by year, the bugle mourns over more and more of "Bill's" comrades. Year by year, the muffled drums roll more funeral dirges. Year by year, the number of freshly dug graves increases.

And "Bill's" tasks become more difficult. His working hours grow longer. But he never complains.

Stead is 77 now, and his step is not as lively as it used to be. Yet, day after day, trowel in hand, he plods right on, in the green houses out at the Kearney Soldiers' Home.

It's for the "boys" who have gone on ahead that he's working. Perhaps it will not be long until he's joining them again.

"Bill's" Flowers
With loving and deft hands he is watering and nursing more than 10,000 plants. Today, Memorial Day, these will be arranged tastefully upon the mounds of earth that mark the final resting places of "Bill's" old comrades in Arlington and Holy Cross cemeteries.

Virtually all his time is devoted to the preparation of these memorial floral pieces. It is "Bill's" tribute to his pals of other days.

Stead was with two branches of the Union service during the Civil War. He was in the navy first. Then he was with the First New Jersey Infantry.

When it comes to relating his war

experiences, "Bill's" lips are sealed. "Just a tale of heroism on land or sea," his visitors plead.

"Not now, son," Stead replies

"I'm too busy with my flowers." But he'll talk about his flowers. They're all that counts with him now. For Decoration-Day is here.

candidate for president at that convention. Could absurdity be more complete? There is no election then. The next International President will be elected, as all presidents have been for many years, by referendum vote of the entire membership in December, 1924.

The strike in Somerset County is not a political scheme as Mr. Brennan so loudly proclaims. It is a hard and bitter struggle on the part of the mine workers there to secure for themselves the rights and privileges which can only be had through organization, with its union agreement covering wages and working conditions.

The Progress Editor says I can hardly deny that the attempt to organize Somerset County is expensive. I don't deny it. I affirm it. Anything worth while is usually expensive. The higher the worth the higher the price—whether it be money, time, effort or sacrifice.

WILL HOLD NOVEL BANQUET
Class No. 4 of the Episcopal church school, taught by Mrs. J. H. Martin, are having a birthday dinner at Jordan's tonight.

It is a coincidence that every boy in the class celebrates the anniversary of his birth in May.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton and daughter, Mrs. Fred Halford, have returned from visiting relatives in Johnstown.

BARNYARD GOLF

The results of the three-handed horseshoe game last evening between Johnson, Smith and Flint resulted as follows:

Smith	29	20	1
Flint	17	12	1
2nd Game—
Johnson	50	20	5

Flint	28	15	2

The next game will be pitched Wednesday afternoon at the Driving Park in connection with the firemen's bazaar, between Johnson and Flint and will be preceded by a juvenile game between Johnson and Spence, two Grampian boys.

The games between Johnson and Flint will be the final three games of the county championship.

WAR SHELL KILLS BOY

Pittsburgh, May 28.—The explosion of a small artillery shell, a relic of the Spanish-American war and supposed to be harmless, killed Hugo, 10-year-old son of James McKnight, Wilkes-Barre, last evening.

The accident occurred in Hugo's bedroom. Apparently the boy struck the shell with some hard object. A second shell, purchased also as a relic by the boys grandfather just after the Spanish-American war, was found near the bed. Both had been used as ornaments.

posite side of the event. The hurdles and dashes will be run on the dirt track in front of the bleachers with the finish at the judge's stand. People other than competing athletes and officials, will not be permitted on the athletic field.

Cups Offered for Each Event.

A silver loving cup is up for each event, the only conditions attached to winning the cup permanently being that the athlete who wins it must be a resident of Clearfield. The Clearfield squad have bettered the record in the distance runs, quarter and javelin, while the broad jump, shot put and hurdles records should be equalled on short notice.

In order to win the one mile relay, Coach Reed expects his lads to run in record time, but to break the existing time of 3:23 will be a super performance.

The C. H. S. athletes have worked untiringly this spring to keep Clearfield conspicuously on the map and it behooves the town people to turn out in force and make the boys feel that their efforts have been appreciated. This will be the biggest H. I. school event ever staged in this section of the state. Do your bit and help swell the crowd to proportions that will be fitting to the event.

See the beautiful array of loving cups and medals to be awarded the winners, on display in Sheeder's store window.

Wilkes-Barre, May 28.—Fishing without permission in the Great Clearfield dam of the Spring Brook Water Company, three men became trapped in the mud yesterday and drowned.

The victims were August Walters, William Walters, his son, and Andrew Yescavitch, a boarder in Walters' home.

The men and Albert Walters, 14 years old, were fishing with a 40-foot seine. The elder Walters waded out in the big reservoir and suddenly disappeared. The other two went to his rescue and they too disappeared.

Albert Walters then ran for aid and met a patrol of the water company. It rushed to the rescue. After several hours search the bodies of the

His addresses are free to all, as are those of all the other speakers of the Flying Squadron. Everybody is invited. The conference should be attended by every friend of the temperance cause. It is vitally important that the people know their rights, and what they themselves have the power to do; also what they have a right to demand of public officials.

Every banker, lawyer, doctor or other professional or business man; every city official, every county officer every woman who desires her home protected from the ravages of drink should come to this conference, each bringing any perplexing question about the law or its enforcement.

In the evening of the same day, Mr. Woertendyke will deliver a powerful address upon how to hold the law which, with such great difficulty has been gained.

Mr. Woertendyke will speak on Wednesday, May 30th, in the Clearfield Presbyterian church at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

three men were found standing upright in the water, about six feet apart. All had been trapped in a mass of mud which held them a foot under the surface.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

After 13 years of almost constant experiment, scientists at the University of Chicago have discovered an anesthetic which is said to be superior to any known drug producing anesthesia. Supporters of the discovery declare it has no effect on the heart action, minimizes danger of pneumonia from the use of "laughing gas," and that persons under its influence can be returned to consciousness almost immediately by the administration of oxygen.

Thousands of dollars worth of growing young timber is being destroyed while a couple of hundred men have been forced to work night and day to prevent further spread of the flames and to protect their own and the property of others. The fires at the headwaters of Trout Run are the work of a deliberate firebug and he should be searched out and sent to the penitentiary.

In a lecture before the student body on "South American Indians, Past and Present," Professor William H.
Haas, of Northwestern University, asserted that there was no race on the North American continent preceding the so-called American Indian.
Professor Haas also discredited the reported find in South America of a skull purporting to be from the early tertiary period, claiming that the so-called American Indian came too late for us to think of him as a fossil.

Alex Ross, of Fort Smith, Arkansas, is a hard man to fill up, and although not very hungry the other day proceeded to get himself a light lunch before tackling his usual substantial dinner. Here is what the lunch consisted of: Thirty-nine eggs, three pounds of limburger cheese, two pounds of barbecued meat, six quarts of near beer.

Alex soon regretted his abstention, however, and hurried home to fill up on corn bread, turnip greens, bacon and buttermilk.

Alex, who works for a packing house branch here, has now agreed to eat a 10-pound ham at one sitting on Saturday or pay for the meat. He figures that if he continues to keep his diet down to the reduced program of today, he may be hungry enough by Saturday to wrap himself around a couple of free hams with no prodigious effort—if someone will pay for the second one.

Deputy Constable John W. Sweigart, of Osceola, arrested Joe Simdak, of Coal Run yesterday on a charge of violation of the liquor law. A still 50 gallons of mash was found at Sim-dak's place and he was held by Squire MacKinnon at Osceola in $1,000 bail for his appearance at Court.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Miss Margaret Helen Phillips and Allison O. Brantner surprised their many friends by slipping away to Cumberland Md., Saturday where they were joined in the Holy Bonds of matrimony by Rev H. L. Schlinke of the Methodist church, the impressive ring ceremony being used. Miss Phillips is the accomplished and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E.
Phillips of Fourth street and Elm Avenue, a graduate of the Clearfield High School, Class 1922. During the past summer she was the playground Teacher at Rossiter, Pa., but for the past six months she has been employed by the Clearfield Textile Co., where she has charge of the Club House and also is an able assistant in the office and can qualify in all the house wifely acts, and will make a worthy helpmate.

Mr. Brantner is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brantner of Hannah street and is employed as a foreman by the Clearfield Textile Co.
Both these young people are well and favorably known and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

BASEBALL NOTES

"Ed" Heberling, one of the best apple knockers in this section, has got the baseball fever. "Ed" was out loosening up the old joints last night.
He showed the boys how to knock the seam off the old apple by jacking it out to the rear track.

Ray Bellas, a new man to the ball fans around here, was out on second last night. This man looks like a good infielder by picking up liners and making nice pegs to all bases.

The warm weather the last couple days has made it possible for the men to steam up. At the present time Clearfield is assured of a very fast infield and a hard hitting outfield.

Don't forget June 7, 1923, 8:30 at the park, when Phillipsburg opens the season here against our boys.

Memorial Day

—A TOKEN

If Memorial day is made an occasion just for looking backward it is not a fitting tribute. May it not better be a day of looking forward, of resolve to carry forward to a complete realization the ideals for which those whom this day honors laid down their lives.

Can't we best honor our departed heroes by once more honestly declaring our allegiance to the same principles of unselfish service in the cause of good government or which they made the supreme sacrifice?
Let's make this Memorial Day a milestone, an outpost of progress along the road to better citizenship.

LAY wreaths upon their resting place and let the words be said
In memory and honor of the gallant soldier dead;
For these are ceremonies which we owe ourselves to give
To keep alive within our hearts the spirit that they knew
We gather here about the graves to pay the dead their due!

BUT oh the happy souls of them, these valiant lads and brave,
Are not beneath the wreaths we lay upon each grassy grave;
I like to think they're out somewhere, beyond our utmost ken,
No clay beneath a monument, but first-class fighting men
Who gather in the army blue or in the khaki brown
To march along the Milky Way as through a conquered town.

I LIKE to think of these that died, as swinging through a street
Somewhere up there in Paradise, with rhythmic tramping feet,
With shuffling files and thudding drums to set the marching time
For youthful brown-skinned veterans forever in their prime.

I THINK they'll be like other souls up there among the blest
Where earthly tribulations never break their peace and rest,
But—say on Decoration Day—I fancy that they come Together at a bivouac, and all the heavens hum

With soldier-talk and laughter, and the astral spaces ring
With bugle calls these fighters knew, and songs they used to sing!
Lay flowers on their sacred graves—but think of them as Men
Who flock together 'mid the stars to meet their pals again;

Lay flowers on their sacred graves, but think of them as though
They still are lads or grizzled vets who in true soldier-wise
Are swapping jokes and stories 'round a campfire in the skies.

EXPECT COMMUNISTS TO MAKE ASSAULT ON BERLIN TOMORROW

Berlin, May 29.—Communists who have rioted in many Ruhr cities and in Saxony plan a great upheaval in Berlin tomorrow, according to unconfirmed rumors here.

Bloody fighting between Reds and police at Dresden at midnight resulted in 11 deaths, according to reports reaching here. A mob seized the French patrol at Stoppenberg here today and two Germans were killed. The chief officer of the French ordered his troops to stop the rioting and two German workers were killed near Seligen in a Communist clash.

The French, who have withheld from interference in the disturbances today prohibited public meetings at Recklinghausen and probably will extend the prohibition to other parts of the R. H. The move, it is believed, may mark the beginning by the French to prevent serious consequences of the rioting.

MRS. PHILLIPS MAY BE LANDED ON U.S. SOIL LATE TODAY

New Orleans, La., May 29.—Clara Phillips, "hammer murderer," was nearing this port today aboard the steamer Copan, on which she sailed from Montreal Friday.

The Copan cleared from a quarantine at Pilottown at 5:45 a. m. The trip from Pilottown is expected to consume eight hours, which would put the vessel into harbor here at two o'clock this afternoon.

Every precaution is being taken here to guard against another escape of the famous prisoner, who saved herself to liberty from the Los Angeles jail following conviction of the murder of Mrs. Albert Meadows.

A detail of New Orleans police will meet the Copan and escort Mrs. Phillips to the jail here where she will be held until departure of a Southern Pacific train for the Pacific Coast.

Mysterious Plague In Egypt Is Said To Have Started In King's Tomb

London, May 29.—A plague is raging in various parts of Europe.

Two victims have died in the outskirts of Paris while in Algeria, Spain and Egypt the pestilence is spreading, causing grave alarm. Steamers are held in quarantine in Mediterranean ports as a result of having cleared from Seville, where the plague is reported severe.

Mysterious whispers are heard that the dreaded plague germ emanated from the tomb of Tut-an-kh-amen in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, Egypt.

Mrs. T. L. Snyder has returned from a week spent at Philadelphia.

ROYD J. NICHOLS

Royd J. Nichols, who passed away at the Clearfield Hospital on Tuesday May 22, 1923, was a son of the late Milton and Margaret Nichols, and was born in Paradise, just beyond the Clearfield borough line, Jan. 25, 1874, being therefore in the 50th year of his age at his death. Zion who survives him, together with one son and a daughter, Cecil H. and Martha R. Nichols, both of Clearfield. One brother, Guy Nichols, of Dennison, Ohio, also survives.

FRENCHVILLE WOMAN DIES AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Elmer Hugney, of Frenchville, died at the Clearfield Hospital at 5 o'clock this morning after an illness of about two weeks duration, aged 32 years.

Mrs. Hugney's death was due to a fall at her home. She was in a delicate condition and in the hope of saving her life the birth of her baby was forced on Tuesday last. The baby, a boy, is healthy and getting along finely but the mother was unable to withstand the effects of her fall and continued to sink until the end this morning.

Grace Bamat Hugney was the daughter of Jule and Mary Coudriet Bamat and was born and spent all her life at Frenchville. He was the ideal wife and mother whose every thought was for her home and those she loved and her heart-broken family have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

She leaves her husband, two daughters and the son already mentioned. Her father, two brothers, William, of Frenchville; Ernest, of Leontes Mills, and two sisters, Mrs. Harold Jannet, and Mrs. C. J. Pluebell, both of Frenchville, also survive. Her remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker Leavy and will be taken to her home tomorrow and the funeral will be held from the Catholic church at Frenchville on Saturday morning.

THE SPIRIT THAT LIVES ON!

Memorial Day is distinctively American. We pause, in silent homage to those who have died that this Nation might live.

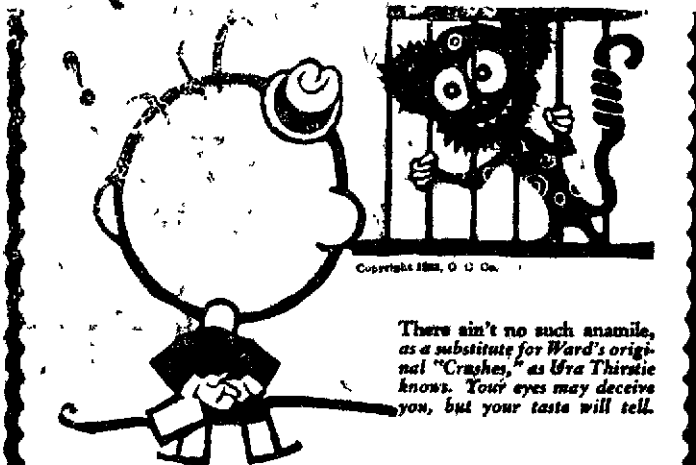

The Liberty Bell; Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech; Dewey's Farewell; Pershing's Last Message, echo again their inspiring challenge to the world.

Because America will ever preserve the sacred heritage of her Sons who gave "their last full measure of devotion," Memorial Day leaves its impress on the hearts of all people.

Those we honor today live on, to enable the spirit of all generations to come.

MAN SHOT AT PARDUS DIES AT HOSPITAL

Jack Crawford, of Rossiter, alleged to have been shot by Blair Bracken, following an altercation in the village of Pardus early Sunday morning, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the DuBois Hospital. At about the same time Crawford was taken into custody at Brackenville, and lodged in the jail at that place. As related in the story of the shooting yesterday, Bracken disappeared after the tragedy, and a hunt was instituted for him.

In view of Crawford's death, it is probable that Bracken will be charged with murder. It was at first believed that Crawford had a fair chance for recovery, it being stated that his condition was good, but a turn for the worse came and death ensued.

It is now declared that Bracken did not make very strenuous efforts to escape following the shooting, but was around the town of Pardus, or up at his shanty most of the time until yesterday morning, when he went to the railroad tracks and boarded a Lake Shore train. When this train went through Reynoldsville, Bracken is alleged to have whistled at a friend along the track and waved his hand in farewell. Word was then telephoned on to Brookville and the train was stopped there. Search was made for Bracken and he was found in a car. He offered no resistance when arrested, and it is reported that he admitted having done the shooting.

In Memoriam

The American Republic has been reared by the sacrifices of her citizens, who held to the doctrine that it is the duty of a citizen to bear arms in the defense of the Republic, in war, as well as conform to the laws in times of Peace.

To those who declined this sacrifice, this day has little meaning.

This day is dedicated to the memory of the citizen soldiers of the Republic, who, from Lexington to the Argonne, gave their lives that this Republic might live.

J.W. Willett, National Commander G. A. R., Finds More Gaps in Line

TENS OF THOUSANDS ARE LEFT

With Deaths at Rate of 2,000 a Month, It Is Estimated 8 Years Will See End

COMMANDER J. W. WILLETT

Des Moines, Ia., May 30.—Slowly the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are thinning. Familiar faces drop out, and none take their places.

Exactly how many still survive is unknown. Last year some 180,000 remained. This year that figure is shortened by approximately 24,000—at the rate of 2,000 a month.

Judge J. W. Willett, of Tama, Ia., continues to rule the diminishing ranks. He is commander in chief, and only naval veterans to hold this office.

A native of Illinois, he enlisted at Cleveland, O., in the volunteer navy in 1863. For a while he served on the receiving ship Clara Dolson at Mound City, Ill. Then he was transferred to the gunboat U. S. S. Springfield, Mississippi squadron, where he served until the war's end.

It is estimated that in about eight years this thin line of veterans will have vanished altogether.

BAND CONCERT WILL BE FEATURE OF THE BAZAAR TONIGHT

The bazaar for the benefit of the Clearfield Fire Department opened at the Clearfield Park last evening with a fine crowd in attendance. The American Legion Band enlivened the opening with some good music and Rockwell's Orchestra supplied the "harmony" for the dance.

The big Exposition Building was handsomely decorated, while a number of booths were banked along either side. Many useful and valuable articles were chanced off or sold while everybody present had a good time.

The Philadelphia Fire Department will pay the local department a friendly call this evening and will visit the bazaar in a body.

The firemen are pleased with the support given them so far and ask everybody who can possibly do so to patronize the bazaar.

A band concert will feature the affair this evening.

THAT HOME

You've Been Dreaming of and Planning For It Can Now Be Made a Reality

For a long time it has been realized by the thinking people of Clearfield, that a great lack of Homes exists in the town, or as it is expressed, "The Housing Facilities are Inadequate." And it has seemed that private investments, either by the home-owner or by someone for returns in rent or appreciating values, did not meet and supply this need.

Early in 1923 a move originated in the Commercial Club of Clearfield, supported by the Rotary Club, "to do something." At a meeting called, representatives of the two organizations, and from the financial institutions of the town, discussed the situation and proceeded to work out a plan to meet it, to supply Home sites at cost to those who wished to build or own homes.

Negotiations were begun and the first real estate investment was made by buying the "Circus Ground Lots," formerly the "Weaver Lots." A Corporation was formed, Stock was sold to the business men of the town, up to $30,000, a Charter was secured, Board of Directors selected, and Officers of the Company elected.

To improve this first bought property it was decided that the Streets should be laid out, Sidewalks built, Curb and Gutters placed, Drainage of surface water and cellar water taken care of, Sanitary Sewers built, Water Pipes laid, Shade Trees planted, and the cost of such improvements added to the cost of the Lots, as such cost would be much less for the lot owner than if he had to improve only his lot frontage at one time. This left him only to build his house.

The proposition is not a money-making plan for the Stockholders. It is expected each will in a few years receive back his money invested, with only the reasonable rate of interest.

LOCATION

These Lots are within three blocks of the Court House, the center of Clearfield. At present unimproved lots several blocks farther out than these, with the same frontage but with somewhat greater depth (which is unnecessary) are selling at from seven hundred to a thousand dollars.

These Lots are for Dwelling Houses only and shall be sold to desirable citizens. It is the intention to make this one of the most attractive residential sections of Clearfield.

TERMS

When a purchaser selects a Lot it is expected that he shall arrange to pay the cost of it and be prepared to begin the construction of his Home at the earliest time.

Should he wish to do so it is desired that he proceed with this on his own arrangements with his builder. But if this is not convenient it is expected that the Home Builders Company, by the aid of the financial institutions of the town, will help him to finance his undertaking, assuming that he is a worthy individual and deserves the aid.

With his Lot paid for, he can place a first mortgage on his property for the major part of the sum needed for building. The

Home Builders Company will be able to help him with a second mortgage for the balance, to be paid back in monthly payments a little greater than he would pay in rent. In a few years he will have paid off the second mortgage and can then pay off the first mortgage on the same terms.

It is believed that many who now pay rent and have paid rent for years—perhaps enough to pay for the house they rented—will see the "good business" in this opportunity.

DETAILS

At this time there are only Forty One Lots to be sold, all in the section bounded by Third Street (which is being opened up to Ogden Avenue,) Leavy Avenue, South Fourth Street and Elm Avenue from Third Street East.

Each of these Streets and Avenues, together with "Pennsylvania Avenue," the new street leading from Third Street east, will be improved as stated, so that all that is left for the Home owner is to build his house and connect up his water and sewer and drain pipes.

The cellar drains will connect with a pipe laid under the curb and gutter in front of the house. The sewer drains will connect to sanitary sewers laid in the driveways at the rear of the lots.

PILLS ON A PULLMAN

WHO put the "sleep" in Sleeping Car? Nobody! It was a PILL.

A pill made it possible to sleep restfully in a Pullman, and leave the train next morning with clear head, bright eyes—full of enthusiasm for breakfast and "pep" for the new day.

Here's how: Just before you peel down the sheets, take two Beecham's Pills. This is the pleasant, sure way to attune the organs of digestion and elimination to normalcy, and thus assure a night of tranquil repose.

Oldest Union General Sees Battles of Long Ago

Grand Rapids, Mich. May 30.—The life of a nation is at stake—Cannons roar and muskets crackle—Blue and gray armies are in battle—

Petersburg passes into rebel hands again. More fierce fighting, and the Stars and Stripes again wave proudly o'er the field as the smoke of battle clears away—

Come word from General Hancock of a promotion to brigadier general—an acknowledgment of gallantry in action. And the answer—

'You had better do it quick. There's no telling how long I'll last with the Johnnies as good shots as they are—'

General Byron R. Pierce, oldest surviving Union general, 'puffing' contentedly on his after-dinner cigar, lives again through all the 'fury of the battle hell.'

Lives Past Again

Through wisps of smoke, he sees the glorious charge. Then the more so rowful—yet more glorious things—wounded men suffering gladly for their cause. And dead men dotting the trampled battlefields.

Fears for his fallen comrades come welling up in the old general's eyes. Most of the boys are gone. But he lives on to see another Decoration Day.

General Pierce, now 93, is spending his last days at Reeds' Lake Sanatorium, near here. He was born Sept. 20, 1829, in East Bloomfield, Ontario County, N. Y.

Entering the Third Michigan Infantry, at the outbreak of the war, as captain of Company K, he rose by leaps and bounds. When he was mustered out, he was a brevet major general.

General Pierce was a fighter of first calibre. In different engagements he was wounded in both legs and both arms. At Fair Oaks his horse was shot from under him.

Became a Dentist

In his youth General Pierce was employed in his father's woolen mills. Then he became a dentist.

After the war, he entered the clothing business with a brother in Grand Rapids. From 1857 to 1891 he was commandant of the Michigan Soldiers' Home.

Twice he was department commander of the Michigan Grand Army of the Republic. For many years he was an officer of the Loyal Legion.

His wife died nearly six years ago. A brother, Frederick, died in service during the war. Another brother, Captain Edwin S. Pierce, was wounded twice. A third brother, Lieutenant Silas K. Pierce was in the Cavalry. Major H. C. Grant, a brother-in-law, was army paymaster general.

EXPERIENCE

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

I WONDER that we worry so
And lose our way with wandering
When every hill and vale we know—
For Time has shown us everything.
We know where we may walk, and where
The brambles are, the dangers lie—
For Time has set a signpost there,
Experience to guide us by.

We know the way, for old men
Have walked a thousand times before,
The world the same world it was then,
The path unchanged forevermore.
We know we need but follow on
With faithful Conscience for our guide—
We know that we shall find the dawn
Who falter not, nor turn aside.

Yet men will venture into sin,
Forget the sun, forget the star,
Will seek new lands to wander in
Where all the hidden dangers are.
Experience has marked the trail,
And Time has proved the trail is true—
Yet men will fall and fools will fall
While stars shine clear from skies
of blue.

Life is no problem—life is plain:
Here is the right, and there's the wrong;
And here is peace, and there is pain.
And there is sorrow, here is song.
With Conscience for our guide and friend,
Experience our counsel wise,
We need not follow to the end
An earthly path to find the skies.

Uncommon Sense

YOUR FRIENDS

THE man who doesn't make friends isn't worth his salt. Man is a social animal. He needs friends to talk to—and to listen to. They are the solace of his leisure hours. They are his confidants in his time of trouble. Without them he might as well be an outcast on a desert island.

Make all the friends you can. At best you will make but a few, for there will be but few men who will take you at your own value, and have enough interest in common with you to be really your friends.

But never use friendship as a means of advancement. Put business on a business basis.

Be independent of friendship in your work. Advancement obtained through friendship is obtained through favor. And what is obtained through favor is of no value.

Never make the mistake of depending on a friend in a business relationship. Often your friend can and will help you. But that sort of help is not the help you want.

Sooner or later, if you are going to get anywhere, you will discover that you must depend on yourself, and yourself alone.

Your friends can advise you, they can sympathize with you, they can if they are honest point out your mistakes to you—provided you are big enough to let them.

But neither by lending you money—or securing you positions or promotions, can they be of any true value to you.

If they are rich and powerful, they will assist you not because of your deserts, but because of their liking for you.

Through such assistance you will get a false idea of your importance, of your worth in the world.

And when you wake up some morning and see yourself in your true light you are going to be sadly disillusioned.

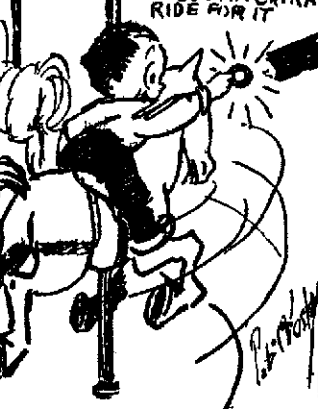

Make friends and keep them. Make them, if you can, among men of different callings, so that you can exchange ideas with them and broaden yourself.

Interest yourself in what they are doing, and interest them in what you are doing. Spend your leisure with them. Enjoy their comradeship. But never depend on them. Friendship was not meant for a ladder by which to climb to higher places in the world. It is too sacred for that.

American Farm Bureau

E. B. Heaton, Director of Dairy Division.

Organization of a national co-operative sales agency for the merchandising of dairy products is nearing completion. The plan for the sales agency was presented to representatives of co-operative dairy marketing associations from Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, meeting in Chicago. It was adopted and an organization committee was immediately named to complete the organization details.

Heaton Is Assigned

The American Farm Bureau Federation was requested to assign E. B. Heaton, director of the dairy division of its Department of Co-operative Marketing, to the task of directing the organization work. Mr. Heaton was so assigned and started immediately on his task.

The organization plan adopted by the dairymen was drawn by the committee of nine appointed by the American Farm Bureau Federation some months ago. In developing the plan the committee made an exhaustive study of dairy marketing methods not only in this country but also in Europe. At the conclusion of their work their report took the form of a recommendation for a national sales agency.

The plan provides for the orderly marketing of butter, cheese, condensed milk and cream. It provides for the federation of co-operative creameries and cheese factories into district and state groups, these to become members of the central sales agency. It provides for the membership also of pooling milk-marketing organizations to market their surplus products—evaporated and condensed milk, butter, cheese and sweet cream.

The central agency plan provides for statistical and information reports to member co-operatives. Publicity and advertising programs will be inaugurated. The big job however, will be the standardization of dairy products and the creation of national brands. All milk products will be handled through separate departments. Aid in financing member co-operatives will also be given.

The control will be based on a one-man, one-vote plan in order to comply with the national co-operative law. The federations and association members will do the voting, according to farmer membership as of June 1 each year.

The executive control of the central agency will be a board of directors composed of 35 members, elected by districts on the basis of farmer patronage with equal number in each district.

Speaking of the work of the committee of nine, J. T. Williams, chairman, says: "Our plan will, in the first instance, create a national brand for butter, which will be the first step in a national merchandising program. The merchants will find it absolutely necessary to handle this national brand, once we get it advertised and introduced in the way we plan. The individual states will be allowed to use this national brand and the butter coming from these states will be marketed under the name of the company which produced it, with their name in print on the label."

Committee of Twelve

The organization committee of twelve is as follows:

Chairman, J. T. Williams, president Milk Producers' Marketing company, Chicago, Ill.

Secretary, E. B. Heaton, director of Dairy Marketing, American Farm Bureau Federation, 68 East Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

H. B. Nickerson, Elk River, Minn., secretary of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association Inc. and vice president of the Twin City Milk Producers' association.

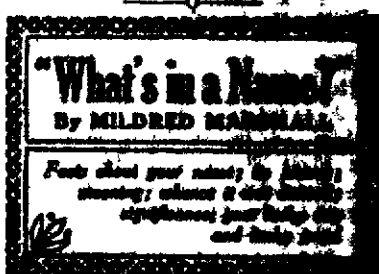

W. F. Schilling, Northfield, Minn., president of the Twin City Milk Producers' association.

C. Hechtelheimer, Waterloo, Iowa, secretary-manager, Iowa Creamery Secretaries and Managers' association. B. J. Sheridan, Fond du Lac, Wis.,

She is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 124 pounds. She is not what might be called a beauty, but she has a sprightly, attractive, and winsome all her own. She has been up the ladder of fame since her first when she was featured in a prominent production.

JUDITH

JUDITH is sometimes confused with Edith because of its similarity in ending, but this is an erroneous notion. It really had its origin in the difficult northern names of Gidya, Gytha, which, because it was so difficult, the contraction of Gidya, Judith is purely northern, having longed to the proud dames of Scandinavia, who refused to marry those Harfage unless he was sole king of all Norway. Later, it was given to the semi-Danish ladies of Earl Godwin's family and melted into English. Finally Judith appears as a contraction for Juditha.

Judith, according to the Old Testament, was the heroine of the book of Judith because of its similarity in ending, but this is an erroneous notion. It really had its origin in the difficult northern names of Gidya, Gytha, which, because it was so difficult, the contraction of Gidya, Judith is purely northern, having longed to the proud dames of Scandinavia, who refused to marry those Harfage unless he was sole king of all Norway. Later, it was given to the semi-Danish ladies of Earl Godwin's family and melted into English. Finally Judith appears as a contraction for Juditha.

Perhaps because of this courageous deed of the Biblical heroine, Judith came to mean "praised." Juditha and Juditha are favorite English derivatives. The Italians have a particularly musical version, Gludith. Judy is a diminutive, used generally as a term of affection, except in the instance of the Judy of the famous Punch and Judy show.

Judith has been beloved of authors, but curiously enough her name has been rather neglected by the poets. There seems to be no noteworthy examples of odes to her or her deeds. But the lack has not diminished the popularity of her name in England and America, while the harmonious Italian version has great vogue in that country.

The Jude is Judith's tallentant stone. Its silky green depths hold promise of freedom from danger and insure fearlessness in its wearer. It is a curative, according to popular superstition, and hence is believed to ward off disease and the fumes of bad luck. Tuesday is Judith's lucky day and 4 her mystic number.

Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

A RAY OF SUNSHINE

IT MATTERS not how lovely we may be, nor how dread life-conditions about our little selves may ebb and flow, there is always some one among our friends and acquaintances upon whom we can shed a ray of sunshine.

Some one is living under darker skies than we, longing for encouraging words or cheering smiles; some one is starving for affection which means to him or her a lump of hope; some one is striving to overcome ruinous habits, too weak to hold his or her frail craft on a safe course.

Each one is living in a state of gloom, from which there seems to be no way of escape.

Each one needs a ray of friendship, the blessed boon which if used aright would make the whole world brighter, knit mankind closer in happiness, soothe aching hearts, dry burning tears and bid them cold stares the beggar's outstretched hand.

There is something in soft-sunshine that penetrates the toughest fibre in human nature.

So send forth this mystic cheer far and wide.

Strew flowers over the rugged path of the poor and the sorrowing, the ill and the wretched, the old and the lonely.

Pour sunshine in their hearts and see it illuminate their countenance, ring their feet and tune their tongues to peaceful songs.

Let it shine on every cross and care.

There are hungry hearts everywhere, behind walls of marble and slabs of stone, praying for appreciation and sympathy.

Find one if we can and blow to flame the spark that kindles love. Scatter sunshine across the sea and over the land until it shall turn night to noon tide.

We may speak different dialects, but we can punctuate our sentences with cheer and make ourselves understood, not clumsily nor dimly, but easily and clearly as the sunlight of heaven.

And if we have within us the right spirit we can continue this beneficent work until love shall canopy the earth, faith and hope flood the dark places with glorious light and sorrow turn to gladness. Whatever the number of good deeds we may have done, however far we have flung the sunshine, there will be times in our lives when we shall feel that we have not done enough to merit the peace which is ours—unpeckably sweet and rich beyond price.

COMMON VIOLET IS CHOICE FOR STATE FLOWER AT PHILA.

Philadelphia, May 23.—(United Press)—Philadelphia school children by a vote of more than 50,000 have selected the common purple violet as their choice for the State flower.

The vote was taken at the request of Dr. Thomas Finegan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The tally received 33,750 votes with the wild rose, butter-cup, golden rod, clover, rose, dandelion, black-eyed Susan, laurel, Star of Bethlehem arbutus, clematis, Quaker Lady, pansy, blue bell, dogwood, tulip, poplar, iris, wild honey-suckle, aster, morning glory and sunflower, in the order named.

Pennsylvania is one of the few states which does not have a state flower and a suggestion was made that a state flower be selected by the public schools of the commonwealth. Others in other cities throughout the state are now voting on their choice.

FIND WOMAN BY RADIO

Radio played an important part in the finding of Mrs. Mary E. Roberts, wife of William F. Roberts, former Camden councilman, who disappeared from home here, Friday night.

A description of her was broadcast from a Philadelphia radio station and was heard by the proprietor of a room house in Philadelphia. He recognized the description as fitting a woman to whom he had rented a room earlier in the day. After questioning her he found he was correct and called Mr. Roberts on the phone, who immediately went to the address and identified his wife.

It is said Mrs. Roberts has been in an exceedingly nervous condition for some time and has been under the care of a physician.

Seven Points of Supremacy

1. The sole leather used in "FOOT-FITTERS" is of the best quality. Even the insoles are cut from standard outsole leather.
2. "FOOT-FITTERS" are the only shoes in the world having full and sole leather box toes. This feature prevents ripping at the toe, a smooth outer and inner surface.
3. The insoles are channelled so that they fit tightly against the foot. There is no need of room for a cork filler. A small piece of cork to prevent squeaking.
4. The "FOOT-FITTER" inside counter pocket is of great value for it keeps the foot from slipping and rubbing against the shoe.
5. "FOOT-FITTER" heels are 1/2 inch longer than generally used. This additional support to the arch and increase in comfort and wear of the shoe.
6. The ramp is reinforced with 8-oz. duck. This absorbs the shock of the foot, keeps the vamp from cracking and holds the shoe in the foot snugly. Built on combination lasts the support the doctor's diagnosis. "FOOT-FITTERS" give comfort, ease and support.

U. S. Offered Billion Dollars For American Merchant Marine: Lasker Confers With Bidders

Columbia Postal Supply
Company Revealed As Heading Interests to Buy Big U. S. Fleet.

Washington, May 29.—Shipping Board members left for New York today to confer with interests which lat yesterday submitted a bid ap-proximating one billion dollars for the American merchant fleet.

Chairman Lasker of the Shipping
Board appointed Board Members O'Connor, Lissner and Smith, head of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, to discuss the offer with the interests that made it.

While in New York the committee will also meet several other bidders.
Lasker refuses to give any information of the identity of the interests making the one billion dollar bid. He stated, however, that they were solid and substantial men with plenty of financial backing. The bid was accompanied by an offer to deposit at once $1,000,000 as an evidence of good faith.

Washington, D. C., May 29.—The Columbia Postal Supply Company of Silver Creek, Tonawanda County,
New York, was today revealed by Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board as the bidder of over one billion, fifty-one million dollars for the Shipping Board Merchant Fleet.

The offer was made by John Black, President of the Company, subject to approval any time up to July 1.
Payment of fifty-one million dollars would be made by October 1, 1923 and fifty million dollars yearly thereafter in quarterly installments until the sum is paid; all deferred payment would bear interest at 4 1/2 per cent.

GOVERNOR SMITH PUTTING UP GREAT BLUFF AT STUDYING QUESTION OF WHETHER HE WILL SIGN "WET" BILL

Albany, N. Y., May 29.—A deluge of wet and dry propaganda literature is pouring into the office of Governor Al Smith—latest battle ground of prohibition.

The Governor, sphinx-like, sits at his desk reading what he can and examining statistics which may influence him either to pass or kill the repealer for the state enforcement act, already passed by the state Legislature.

Indications that the Governor will ignore the sentiments of President Harding expressed by the chief executive in a letter condemning the repealer was seen by his friends today.

While the Governor refuses to drop the slightest word that may be taken as an indication of what he may do, his friends now say that he is approaching the problem from a state viewpoint only. If he has reasons to believe the sentiment of the state's forces rebel at the prohibition act and representatives of the Legislature are 70 per cent anti-prohibition—Smith will sign the bill and let Presidential aspirations, national politics and such take their course.

Affirms Statement That
Somerset Job Is Costly
But Says He Could Not
Do All That Is Charged.

Yesterday The Progress published a statement from the pen of J. S.
Brennen, secretary of the Somerset County Coal Operator's Association, which we said in an editorial called for a reply. We had little doubt that Mr. Brophy would be on the ground quickly with a reply for Brophy is a fighter and loves a scrap. He can usually hold his own in any controversy and he comes back strong in a statement which he left at The Progress office at noon today. Herewith is the statement. In this game of checkers it is Mr. Brennen's move and he is some artist if he can see a jump.

"Speaking for the Somerset County Coal Operator's Association, a body of operators who practice organization themselves but deny that right to their employees, J. S. Brennen, secretary, has issued a statement that is as check-full of misinformation as any statement can well be.

What are the facts?
The strike in Somerset County is not an outlaw strike. It was called on the authorization of the International Policy Committee, consisting of representatives from every mining district in the United States, and neither that body, nor the International Executive Board, nor the International officers have asked that it be discontinued. It is true that District
No. 2 is financing the strike at present, but there is nothing irregular or strange about that. It might be interesting to know that the assessment levied to carry on the strike was continued by a referendum vote of the mine workers of District No. 2, in February, 1923, and that on April 21st, the District Convention again voted to continue the strike as long as the Somerset County miners so desire.

Mr. Brennen's ignorance of the mine workers organization affairs is colossal. He assumes that I am a candidate for International President and then proceeds to outline my campaign. It's a fine scheme. The only trouble with it is that it won't work.
But why all this noise about Somerset County if there are only 1,157 men on strike? If there were only 1,157 striking miners in Somerset county (which is not the case), and if it were true that I could scatter that number into a large number of small locals (which I can't do) and each local sent a delegate to the National Convention in January, 1924 (which they can't afford to do because the local pays the delegate's expenses), those delegates couldn't vote for any

"MUST REVIVE FLAME OF PATRIOTISM"—OWSLEY

By ALVIN OWSLEY
National Commander, American Legion

ON this day, sacred to the memory of America's brave fighting men who lie buried in the cemeteries of Europe and America, the American Legion joins the great body of American citizenry in reverent tribute.

At home and in the lands across the seas, Legion men, the comrades in battle of those who sleep, are making pilgrimages to the burial places to allow upon their brow the flowers of remembrance.

As we pause in reverence at the shrines of our hero dead, a feeling of our own unworthiness must manifest itself. Our comrades have made the highest sacrifice; they have given their lives to perpetuate the ideals of peace and good will.

The cause for which they died has not prevailed. We who survived the fight have been unable to accomplish the holy tasks bequeathed to us by those who fell.

This Memorial Day should mark the reconsecration of our endeavors toward instilling in this nation and the world the spirit of the men who died for us. In our own country we must revive that flame of patriotism which burned brightly during the days of strife and in the world the unity of sentiment that existed among allied peoples fighting for their homes and freedoms against the advance of a militaristic power. If our efforts are not turned toward the achievements of these high ideas, we break faith with those whose memory we reverence today.

The American Legion was founded to preserve for posterity the spirit that led the finest men in our land to sacrifice their all for a great and noble cause.

Its program is based on a broad conception of peacetime service to the community, state and nation.

It has thrown the weight of its influence on the side of the right during the uncertain days following the return to America of our overseas fighters and has assisted in preserving the nation from the perils of those sinister forces which have brought disaster and ruin to the largest nation in the world and which today threaten many other lands.

Members of the Legion have caught the torch thrown to them by their falling comrades and will bear it on, lifting men and nations to the higher ground.

MOUNTAIN BLAZE IS STILL KEEPING 100 MEN FIGHTING FIRE

Almost Entire Acreage
of the Punxsy Hunting Club Burned Over; Attempt to Find Firebug.

A PUBLIC OUTRAGE

The forest fires on the mountains north of town continue to burn despite the efforts of a company of nearly one hundred fire fighters who have been working night and day since the fire was set out by incendiaries Sunday afternoon.

Almost every one of the 4400 acres owned by the Punxsutawney Hunting Club has been burned over and much valuable young timber and small game destroyed. Thanks to the val-ant efforts of the men employed by the State Forestry Department and the crew under the personal direction of President H. C. Bowers of the Punxsutawney Club, the fire was under control this morning on the side of the burned area, which extends from the Big Prairie to the Mc-George end of the Four Mile Road north to the Caledonia Pike and away down the Green Ridge between Cold Stream and Trout Run.

No effort has been made thus far to ferret out the firebug suspect in this disastrous blaze but a strenuous effort will be made to run down the perpetrator of the outrage when the fire is finally conquered.

CLEARFIELD B. & L. ASSOCIATION HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

The Clearfield Building and Loan Association, one of the stable institutions of Clearfield, entered its 39th year with last night's meeting. During the past 38 years this conservative, carefully managed institution, has helped many local people to secure homes. At last night's meeting loans totaling $10,500 were made, every dollar being used toward the supplying of a home for Clearfield people.

The following officers were inducted into office last evening and will conduct the affairs of the Association during the coming year:

President, A. B. Read.
Vice president, F. A. Walker.
Treasurer, C. W. Smith.
Secretary, John A. Stock.
Directors: Grant Butler, F. S. Gililand, H. B. Hartwick, C. M. Rhine, Harry L. Shaw, Howard Stewart, Roll B. Thompson, F. A. Walker, Walter Welch.
Auditors: E. T. Gaultin, Fred B.
Reed, R. Grant Ross.
Solicitor, Walter Welch.

"HURRY, HURRY, HURRY"

This warning is sent out to the hundreds of Clearfield people who failed to see the show bearing this name when it was produced here a couple of weeks ago. People did not fail to see the show on its initial production because they were not interested but because standing room was at a premium. This second showing, or return engagement, is not being staged simply for the purpose of garnering in additional shakels but for the purpose of adding to the funds of the County Tuberculosis Society.

"Hurry, Hurry, Hurry" was put on by the dramatic club of the St. Francis High School and made a great hit with those who saw it. The school authorities have sanctioned the giving of the show again for the purpose of aiding the Tuberculosis Society and the players and cast have willingly agreed to do their stunts again for the same purpose.

Ticket sellers will be on the wing from now until Friday night, the evening of the show, and everybody approached should purchase a ticket.

Mrs. George A. Jacobs, of Chicago, wife of the inventor of the J & J Wind Shield Hinge, (look on the Jitneys) who was attending to some

Saturday and Sunday with her brother, W. Emmett Mather and family, gion and other veterans' organizations.

Those who go to the exercises at Hillcrest cemetery tomorrow morning will enjoy the novelty of hearing Lincoln's Gettysburg address read by one who heard the immortal President give it. John A. Stock was but a lad of nine years when the battle of Gettysburg was fought. He took refuge with the soldiers participating in that battle and was under fire at various times. His home was in the village as was also that of Mrs. Stock, who was then a wee bit of a girl. During the battle Mrs. Stock was in hiding in the cellar of her home. When the smoke of battle had cleared away Mr.
Stock was reunited with his family and at a later date when Mr. Lincoln came to Gettysburg to make his now ever-to-be-forgotten address, like a normal boy of his age, John was right up front and has a distinct recollection of that historic event. He remembers us that the big speech of the day was made by one, John Everett, who spoke for an hour and fifteen minutes. Mr. Everett said a great deal but it is forgotten. Lincoln spoke for only a very few minutes and his words have echoed throughout the world.

Rolling Stone Bridge Will Be Completed In 30 Days Says Engineer

County Surveyor McDonald was over from DuBois today and accompanied State Engineer Spague down the river to the Rolling Stone and Deer Creek bridges, for the purpose of inspecting the work and attempting to decide just when these bridges will be opened to traffic. They report the Rolling Stone bridge is rapidly nearing completion and will be opened for traffic in about 30 days. At Deer Creek the iron work for one span of the bridge is in place but no time for its completion has been fixed thus far.

PICK OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA TO BE HERE TOMORROW

Bleachers Being Put Up Today to Provide for Comfort of Crowd that Will Attend Big Meet.

By DICK LEIPOLD

Everything is all set for the biggest and best athletic meet ever held in this section of Pennsylvania. The pick of scholastic track talent from the leading schools of this district will arrive tomorrow morning and make ready for the events in the afternoon.

The events will be run in the following order. Promptly at 1:15 the 1 mile marathon over the Second stage course will start, with the finish in front of the grandstand. The winner of this race will receive the "Punxsy Marathon Watch." While this event is going on the high jump will start.
The 120 high hurdles trials follow, as do the century trial heats. Then distance run, the mile, will be run.
The next event will be the finals in the 120 hurdles and the 100 yard dash final. The half mile run, trials for the 220 dash, 220 low hurdles and 440 yard dash, then finals in the dash and hurdles bring the program to the final event, the mile relay. The Relay promises to be the most interesting race of the afternoon, as both teams are entered and at least half of these teams are known to have a 50-50 chance of winning. Captain
R. William Thompson Relay Captain to the winning team.

The field events will start right after the high jump, and in the order indicated below, will be run off:—
hammer throw; 2 discus; 3 pole vault;
4 javelin; 5 shot put; 6 broad jump.
The program as arranged above keeps the interesting events well spread out thru the meet and is also "kind" to the athletes who are entered in several events.

Clearfield School Score as a Team
The local school should tally a half hundred points thru the performance of the entire squad, if Coach Reed's lads come thru in actual competition as well as they show up in practice. Captain "Swede" Johnson will enter the mile and a half mile in his main events, and is a favorite to win both runs.

"Hody" Johnson is counted on to place in the 100, 220, 440 and broad jump. Other C. H. S. dash men should get in the finals are Frank Witherow and Ken Barnie. Clearfield will make a strong bid toward the hurdles title, in both the high and low timbers. Under the coaching of Bud Mahaffey, "Muckle" Moore, Max
Phillips and Art Kane have developed real form and should be able to equal if not better the 220 hurdle mark of 28.2.

Wilson and Pearce are the "high hikers" in the 120 race.

The Rod and Pole distance relables are "Tertty" R. M. Clure, Kephart and Maurey. These lads are all counted on to register points in the lengthy events. In the 440 Coach Reed has a number of men that may run.
Jack Mohney, Barnie, "Swede," Hody or Mourey are all capable, heady runners and any one of them if entered will be among the medal winners.
The weight events will be pretty well taken care of by Betts, Bowes, K.
Witherow and "Swede." Carns and Moore should place in the discus, while Bob Carnes will make the javelin throwers do some mean flinging to get a "first" over him. The Relay Team that will represent C. H. S. will probably be "Hody" Johnson, Ken Barnie, Jack Mohney and "Swede" Johnson. However, conditions may arise that will cause a change in the betrn toters' ranks. A number of other Clearfield athletes will make their bow to Clearfield fans and some stars may be uncovered before the meet.

Bleachers for Spectators Several sections of bleachers are being erected directly opposite the cinder track. If everyone is seated, all of the events can be seen, as the participants will be kept on the opposite end of the track.

As Graves Increase, His Task Grows Harder

Kearney, N. J., May 30.—Taps is sounding nearly every month for William Stead's old comrades.

Year by year, the bugle mourns over more and more of "Bill's" comrades. Year by year, the muffled drums roll more funeral dirges. Year by year, the number of freshly dug graves increases.

Stead is 77 now, and his step is not as lively as it used to be. Yet, day after day, trowel in hand, he plods right on, in the green houses out at the Kearney Soldiers' Home.

It's for the "boys" who have gone on ahead that he's working. Perhaps it will not be long until he's joining them again.

"Bill's" Flowers
With loving and deft hands he is watering and nursing more than 10,000 plants. Today, Memorial Day, these will be arranged tastefully upon the mounds of earth that mark the final resting places of "Bill's" old comrades in Arlington and Holy Cross cemeteries.

Virtually all his time is devoted to the preparation of these memorial floral pieces. It is "Bill's" tribute to his pals of other days.

Stead was with two branches of the Union service during the Civil War. He was in the navy first. Then he was with the First New Jersey Infantry.

When it comes to relating his war

experiences, "Bill's" lips are sealed. "Just a tale of heroism on land or sea," his visitors plead.

"Not now, son," Stead replies

"I'm too busy with my flowers." But he'll talk about his flowers. They're all that counts with him now. For Decoration-Day is here.

candidate for president at that convention. Could absurdity be more complete? There is no election then. The next International President will be elected, as all presidents have been for many years, by referendum vote of the entire membership in December, 1924.

The strike in Somerset County is not a political scheme as Mr. Brennan so loudly proclaims. It is a hard and bitter struggle on the part of the mine workers there to secure for themselves the rights and privileges which can only be had through organization, with its union agreement covering wages and working conditions.

The Progress Editor says I can hardly deny that the attempt to organize Somerset County is expensive. I don't deny it. I affirm it. Anything worth while is usually expensive. The higher the worth the higher the price—whether it be money, time, effort or sacrifice.

JOHN BROPHY

WILL HOLD NOVEL BANQUET
Class No. 4 of the Episcopal church school, taught by Mrs. J. H. Martin, are having a birthday dinner at Jordan's tonight.

It is a coincidence that every boy in the class celebrates the anniversary of his birth in May.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton and daughter, Mrs. Fred Halford, have returned from visiting relatives in Johnstown.

BARNYARD GOLF

The results of the three-handed horseshoe game last evening between Johnson, Smith and Flint resulted as follows:

Johnson	50	15	3
Smith	29	20	1
Flint	17	12	1
2nd Game—
Johnson	50	20	5
Smith	45	18	4
Flint	28	15	2

The next game will be pitched Wednesday afternoon at the Driving Park in connection with the firemen's bazaar, between Johnson and Flint and will be preceded by a juvenile game between Johnson and Spence, two Grampian boys.

The games between Johnson and Flint will be the final three games of the county championship.

WAR SHELL KILLS BOY

Pittsburgh, May 28.—The explosion of a small artillery shell, a relic of the Spanish-American war and supposed to be harmless, killed Hugo, 10-year-old son of James McKnight, Wilkes-Barre, last evening.

The accident occurred in Hugo's bedroom. Apparently the boy struck the shell with some hard object. A second shell, purchased also as a relic by the boys grandfather just after the Spanish-American war, was found near the bed. Both had been used as ornaments.

Every Minute Counts in the fight against constipation!

Once let constipation get a grip on you, and your system is wide open to 90% of human ailments. Statistics show that to be the proportion of illness that has constipation for a starting point. Pills and cathartics are as dangerous to the system as constipation!

Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran, because it is nature's own relief from constipation. It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering instantly from constipation and it will do what no other food can do. It will give every sufferer permanent relief if it is eaten regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases!

Kellogg's Bran is wonderful in its natural, positive action. It sweeps and cleanses and purifies the bowel tracts; it acts out the dangerous toxic poisons; it puts you back on schedule time without irritation or discomfort!

Don't delay eating Kellogg's Bran each day in some form! Try it as a cereal sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook it with hot cereals. In the latter case, add two tablespoonfuls for each person and mix with the regular cereal and cook as usual.

Kellogg's Bran is simply delicious made into muffins, popovers, raisin bread, macaroons, pancakes, etc. Recipes are on every package! For health's sake get some Kellogg's Bran immediately. All grocers.

First class hotels and clubs serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant.

posite side of the event. The hurdles and dashes will be run on the dirt track in front of the bleachers with the finish at the judge's stand. People other than competing athletes and officials, will not be permitted on the athletic field.

Cups Offered for Each Event.

A silver loving cup is up for each event, the only conditions attached to winning the cup permanently being that the athlete who wins it must be a resident of Clearfield. The Clearfield squad have bettered the record in the distance runs, quarter and javelin, while the broad jump, shot put and hurdles records should be equalled on short notice.

In order to win the one mile relay, Coach Reed expects his lads to run in record time, but to break the existing time of 3:23 will be a super performance.

The C. H. S. athletes have worked untiringly this spring to keep Clearfield conspicuously on the map and it behooves the town people to turn out in force and make the boys feel that their efforts have been appreciated. This will be the biggest H. S. school event ever staged in this section of the state. Do your bit and help swell the crowd to proportions that will be fitting to the event.

See the beautiful array of 100 loving cups and medals to be awarded the winners, on display in Sheeder's store window.

3 TRAPPED IN MUD DROWN

Wilkes-Barre, May 28.—Fishing without permission in the Great Clearfield dam of the Spring Brook Water Company, three men became trapped in the mud yesterday and drowned.

The victims were August Walters, William Walters, his son, and Andrew Yesavitch, a boarder in Walters' home.

The men and Albert Walters, 14 years old, were fishing with a 40-foot seine. The elder Walters waded out in the big reservoir and suddenly disappeared. The other two went to his rescue and they too disappeared.

Albert Walters then ran for aid and met a patrol of the water company. It rushed to the rescue. After several hours search the bodies of the questions relating to prohibition, its violation, or its enforcement.

His addresses are free to all, as are those of all the other speakers of the Flying Squadron. Everybody is invited. The conference should be attended by every friend of the temperance cause. It is vitally important that the people know their rights, and what they themselves have the power to do; also what they have a right to demand of public officials.

Every banker, lawyer, doctor or other professional or business man; every city official, every county officer every woman who desires her home protected from the ravages of drink should come to this conference, each bringing any perplexing question about the law or its enforcement.

In the evening of the same day, Mr. Woertendyke will deliver a powerful address upon how to hold the law which, with such great difficulty has been gained.

Mr. Woertendyke will speak on Wednesday, May 30th, in the Clearfield Presbyterian church at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Three men were found standing upright in the water, about six feet apart. All had been trapped in a mass of mud which held them a foot under the surface.

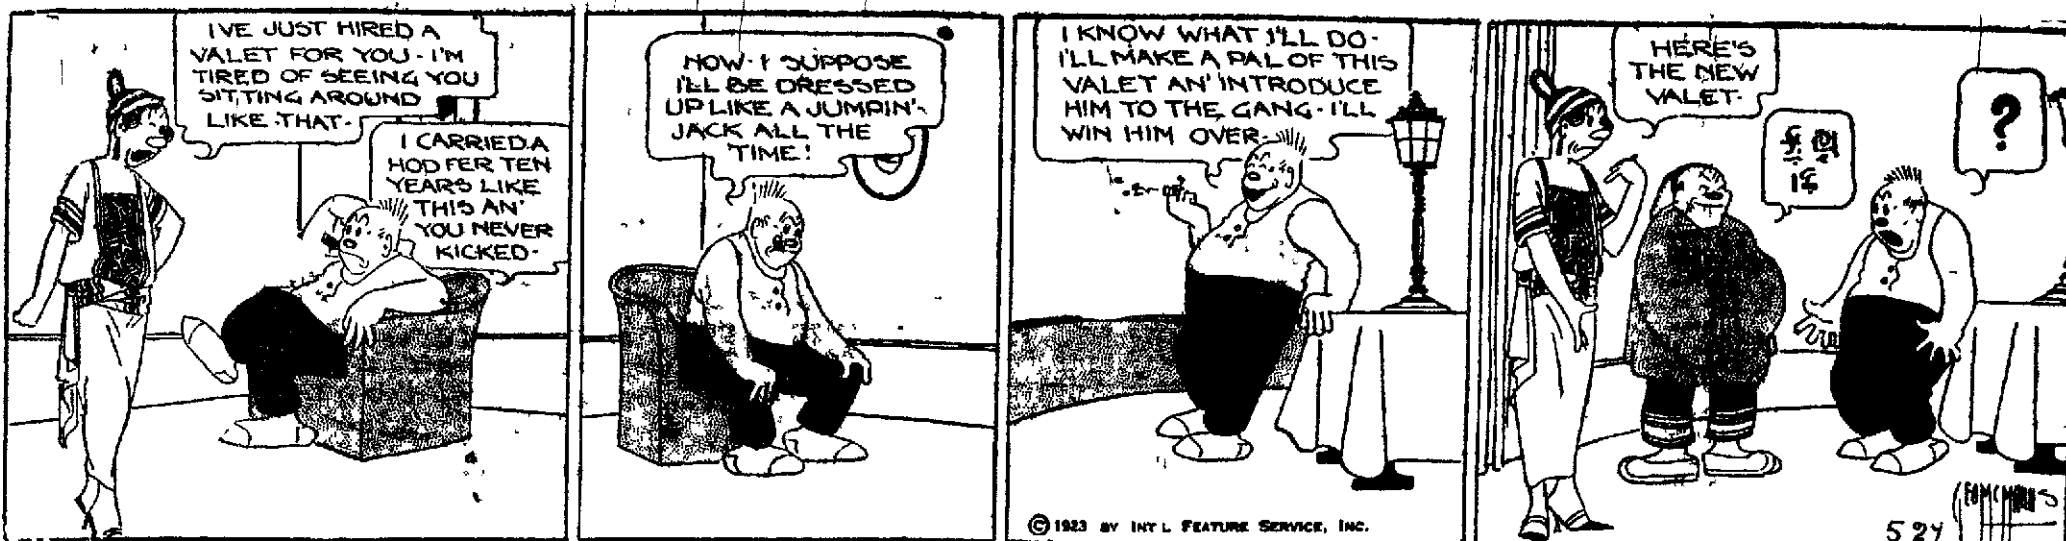

Mrs. Blanche Fullerton and little son George, of Boston, Mass., are spending several months with Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton on Market street.

STILL MARCHING ON
by Gordon Bralcy

LAY wreaths upon their resting place and let the words be said
In memory and honor of the gallant soldier dead;
For these are ceremonies which we owe ourselves to give
We gather here about the graves to pay the dead their due!

BUT oh the happy souls of them, these valiant lads and brave,
Are not beneath the wreaths we lay upon each grassy grave;
I like to think they're out somewhere, beyond our utmost ken,
No clay beneath a monument, but first-class fighting men
Who gather in the army blue or in the khaki brown
To march along the Milky Way as through a conquered town.

I LIKE to think of these that died, as swinging through a street
Somewhere up there in Paradise, with rhythmic tramping feet,
With shuffling files and thudding drums to set the marching time
For youthful brown-skinned veterans forever in their prime.

I THINK they'll be like other souls up there among the blest
Where earthly tribulations never break their peace and rest,
But—say on Decoration Day—I fancy that they come
Together at a bivouac, and all the heavens hum

With soldier-talk and laughter, and the astral spaces ring
With bugle calls these fighters knew, and songs they used to sing!
Lay flowers on their sacred graves—but think of them as Men
Who flock together 'mid the stars to meet their pals again,

Lay flowers on their sacred graves, but think of them as though
They still are lads or grizzled vets who in true soldier-wise
Are swapping jokes and stories 'round a campfire in the skies.

EXPECT COMMUNISTS TO MAKE ASSAULT ON BERLIN TOMORROW

Berlin, May 29.—Communists who have rioted in many Ruhr cities and in Saxony plan a great upheaval in Berlin tomorrow, according to unconfirmed rumors here.

Bloody fighting between Reds and police at Dresden at midnight resulted in 11 deaths, according to reports reaching here. A mob seized the French patrol at Stoppenberg here today and two Germans were killed. The chief officer of the French ordered his troops to stop the rioting and two German workers were killed near Seligen in a Communist clash.

The French, who have withheld from interference in the disturbances today prohibited public meetings at Recklinghausen and probably will extend the prohibition to other parts of the R. H. The move, it is believed, may mark the beginning by the French to prevent serious consequences of the rioting.

MRS. PHILLIPS MAY BE LANDED ON U.S. SOIL LATE TODAY

New Orleans, La., May 29.—Clara Phillips, "hammer murderer," was nearing this port today aboard the steamer Copan, on which she sailed from Montreal Friday.

The Copan cleared from a quarantine at Pilottown at 5:45 a. m. The trip from Pilottown is expected to consume eight hours, which would put the vessel into harbor here at two o'clock this afternoon.

Every precaution is being taken here to guard against another escape of the famous prisoner, who saved herself to liberty from the Los Angeles jail following conviction of the murder of Mrs. Albert Meadows.

A detail of New Orleans police will meet the Copan and escort Mrs. Phillips to the jail here where she will be held until departure of a Southern Pacific train for the Pacific Coast.

THE SPIRIT THAT LIVES ON!

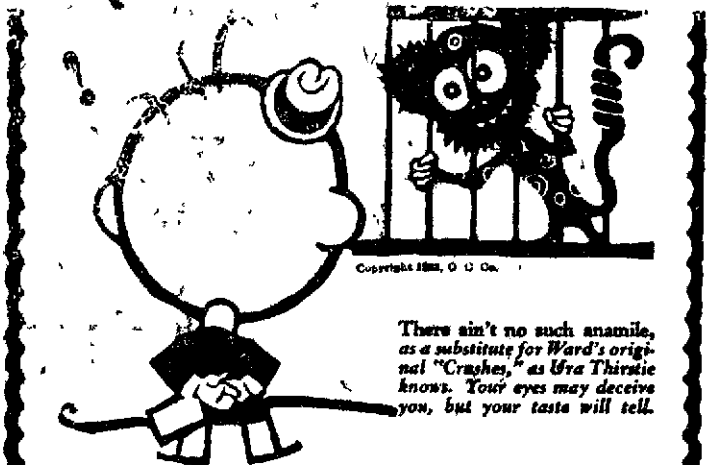

Memorial Day is distinctively American. We pause, in silent homage to those who have died that this Nation might live.

The Liberty Bell; Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech; Dewey's Farewell; Pershing's Last Message, echo again their inspiring challenge to the world.

Because America will ever preserve the sacred heritage of her Sons who gave "their last full measure of devotion," Memorial Day leaves its impress on the hearts of all people.

ANOTHER SLICE CUT FOR THE TURKS TO SPREAD THEIR PEACE

Lausanne, May 29.—The Turks were given a new slice of territory in Europe today by the diplomats devising Near East peace here.

MAN SHOT AT PARDUS DIES AT HOSPITAL

Jack Crawford, of Rossiter, alleged to have been shot by Blair Bracken, following an altercation in the village of Pardus early Sunday morning, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the DuBois Hospital. At about the same time Crawford was taken into custody at Brackenville, and lodged in the jail at that place. As related in the story of the shooting yesterday, Bracken disappeared after the tragedy, and a hunt was instituted for him.

In view of Crawford's death, it is probable that Bracken will be charged with murder. It was at first believed that Crawford had a fair chance for recovery, it being stated that his condition was good, but a turn for the worse came and death ensued.

It is now declared that Bracken did not make very strenuous efforts to escape following the shooting, but was around the town of Pardus, or up at his shanty most of the time until yesterday morning, when he went to the railroad tracks and boarded a Lake Shore train. When this train went through Reynoldsville, Bracken is alleged to have whistled at a friend along the track and waved his hand in farewell. Word was then telephoned on to Brookville and the train was stopped there. Search was made for Bracken and he was found in a car. He offered no resistance when arrested, and it is reported that he admitted having done the shooting.

In Memoriam

The American Republic has been reared by the sacrifices of her citizens, who held to the doctrine that it is the duty of a citizen to bear arms in the defense of the Republic, in war, as well as conform to the laws in times of Peace.

To those who declined this sacrifice, this day has little meaning.

This day is dedicated to the memory of the citizen soldiers of the Republic, who, from Lexington to the Argonne, gave their lives that this Republic might live.

With Deaths at Rate of 2,000 a Month, It Is Estimated 8 Years Will See End

COMMANDER J. W. WILLETT

Des Moines, Ia., May 30.—Slowly the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are thinning. Familiar faces drop out, and none take their places.

Exactly how many still survive is unknown. Last year some 180,000 remained. This year that figure is shortened by approximately 24,000—at the rate of 2,000 a month.

Judge J. W. Willett, of Tama, Ia., continues to rule the diminishing ranks. He is commander in chief, and only naval veterans to hold this office.

A native of Illinois, he enlisted at Cleveland, O., in the volunteer navy in 1863. For a while he served on the receiving ship Clara Dolson at Mound City, Ill. Then he was transferred to the gunboat U. S. S. Springfield, Mississippi squadron, where he served until the war's end.

It is estimated that in about eight years this thin line of veterans will have vanished altogether.

BAND CONCERT WILL BE FEATURE OF THE BAZAAR TONIGHT

The bazaar for the benefit of the Clearfield Fire Department opened at the Clearfield Park last evening with a fine crowd in attendance. The American Legion Band enlivened the opening with some good music and Rockwell's Orchestra supplied the "harmony" for the dance.

The big Exposition Building was handsomely decorated, while a number of booths were banked along either side. Many useful and valuable articles were chanced off or sold while everybody present had a good time.

The Philadelphia Fire Department will pay the local department a friendly call this evening and will visit the bazaar in a body.

The firemen are pleased with the support given them so far and ask everybody who can possibly do so to patronize the bazaar.

A band concert will feature the affair this evening.

You've Been Dreaming of and Planning For It Can Now Be Made a Reality

For a long time it has been realized by the thinking people of Clearfield, that a great lack of Homes exists in the town, or as it is expressed, "The Housing Facilities are Inadequate." And it has seemed that private investments, either by the home-owner or by someone for returns in rent or appreciating values, did not meet and supply this need.

Early in 1923 a move originated in the Commercial Club of Clearfield, supported by the Rotary Club, "to do something." At a meeting called, representatives of the two organizations, and from the financial institutions of the town, discussed the situation and proceeded to work out a plan to meet it, to supply Home sites at cost to those who wished to build or own homes.

Negotiations were begun and the first real estate investment was made by buying the "Circus Ground Lots," formerly the "Weaver Lots." A Corporation was formed, Stock was sold to the business men of the town, up to $30,000, a Charter was secured, Board of Directors selected, and Officers of the Company elected.

To improve this first bought property it was decided that the Streets should be laid out, Sidewalks built, Curb and Gutters placed, Drainage of surface water and cellar water taken care of, Sanitary Sewers built, Water Pipes laid, Shade Trees planted, and the cost of such improvements added to the cost of the Lots, as such cost would be much less for the lot owner than if he had to improve only his lot frontage at one time. This left him only to build his house.

The proposition is not a money-making plan for the Stockholders. It is expected each will in a few years receive back his money invested, with only the reasonable rate of interest.

LOCATION

These Lots are within three blocks of the Court House, the center of Clearfield. At present unimproved lots several blocks farther out than these, with the same frontage but with somewhat greater depth (which is unnecessary) are selling at from seven hundred to a thousand dollars.

These Lots are for Dwelling Houses only and shall be sold to desirable citizens. It is the intention to make this one of the most attractive residential sections of Clearfield.

TERMS

When a purchaser selects a Lot it is expected that he shall arrange to pay the cost of it and be prepared to begin the construction of his Home at the earliest time.

Should he wish to do so it is desired that he proceed with this on his own arrangements with his builder. But if this is not convenient it is expected that the Home Builders Company, by the aid of the financial institutions of the town, will help him to finance his undertaking, assuming that he is a worthy individual and deserves the aid.

With his Lot paid for, he can place a first mortgage on his property for the major part of the sum needed for building. The

Home Builders Company will be able to help him with a second mortgage for the balance, to be paid back in monthly payments a little greater than he would pay in rent. In a few years he will have paid off the second mortgage and can then pay off the first mortgage on the same terms.

It is believed that many who now pay rent and have paid rent for years—perhaps enough to pay for the house they rented—will see the "good business" in this opportunity.

DETAILS

At this time there are only Forty One Lots to be sold, all in the section bounded by Third Street (which is being opened up to Ogden Avenue,) Leavy Avenue, South Fourth Street and Elm Avenue from Third Street East.

Each of these Streets and Avenues, together with "Pennsylvania Avenue," the new street leading from Third Street east, will be improved as stated, so that all that is left for the Home owner is to build his house and connect up his water and sewer and drain pipes.

The cellar drains will connect with a pipe laid under the curb and gutter in front of the house. The sewer drains will connect to sanitary sewers laid in the driveways at the rear of the lots.

Oldest Union General Sees Battles of Long Ago

Grand Rapids, Mich. May 30.—The life of a nation is at stake—Cannons roar and muskets crackle—Blue and gray armies are in battle—

Petersburg passes into rebel hands again. More fierce fighting, and the Stars and Stripes again wave proudly o'er the field as the smoke of battle clears away—

Come word from General Hancock of a promotion to brigadier general—an acknowledgment of gallantry in action. And the answer—

'You had better do it quick. There's no telling how long I'll last with the Johnnies as good shots as they are—'

General Byron R. Pierce, oldest surviving Union general, 'puffing' contentedly on his after-dinner cigar, lives again through all the 'fury of the battle hell.'

Lives Past Again

Through wisps of smoke, he sees the glorious charge. Then the more so rowful—yet more glorious things—wounded men suffering gladly for their cause. And dead men dotting the trampled battlefields.

Fears for his fallen comrades come welling up in the old general's eyes. Most of the boys are gone. But he lives on to see another Decoration Day.

General Pierce, now 93, is spending his last days at Reeds' Lake Sanatorium, near here. He was born Sept. 20, 1829, in East Bloomfield, Ontario County, N. Y.

Entering the Third Michigan Infantry, at the outbreak of the war, as captain of Company K, he rose by leaps and bounds. When he was mustered out, he was a brevet major general.

General Pierce was a fighter of first calibre. In different engagements he was wounded in both legs and both arms. At Fair Oaks his horse was shot from under him.

Became a Dentist

In his youth General Pierce was employed in his father's woolen mills. Then he became a dentist.

After the war, he entered the clothing business with a brother in Grand Rapids. From 1857 to 1891 he was commandant of the Michigan Soldiers' Home.

Twice he was department commander of the Michigan Grand Army of the Republic. For many years he was an officer of the Loyal Legion.

His wife died nearly six years ago. A brother, Frederick, died in service during the war. Another brother, Captain Edwin S. Pierce, was wounded twice. A third brother, Lieutenant Silas K. Pierce was in the Cavalry. Major H. C. Grant, a brother-in-law, was army paymaster general.

EXPERIENCE

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

I WONDER that we worry so
And lose our way with wandering
When every hill and vale we know—
For Time has shown us everything.
where
The brambles are, the dangers lie—
For Time has set a signpost there,
Experience to guide us by.

We know the way, for old men
Have walked a thousand times before,
The world the same world it was then,
The path unchanged forevermore.
We know we need but follow on
With faithful Conscience for our guide—
We know that we shall find the dawn
Who falter not, nor turn aside.

Yet men will venture into sin,
Forget the sun, forget the star,
Will seek new lands to wander in
Where all the hidden dangers are.
Experience has marked the trail,
And Time has proved the trail is
true—
Yet men will fall and fools will fall
While stars shine clear from skies
of blue.

Life is no problem—life is plain:
Here is the right, and there's the
wrong;
And here is peace, and there is pain.
And there is sorrow, here is song.
With Conscience for our guide and
friend,
Experience our counsel wise,
We need not follow to the end
An earthly path to find the skies.

Uncommon Sense

YOUR FRIENDS

THE man who doesn't make friends isn't worth his salt. Man is a social animal. He needs friends to talk to—and to listen to. They are the solace of his leisure hours. They are his confidants in his time of trouble. Without them he might as well be an outcast on a desert island.

Make all the friends you can. At best you will make but a few, for there will be but few men who will take you at your own value, and have enough interest in common with you to be really your friends.

But never use friendship as a means of advancement. Put business on a business basis.

Be independent of friendship in your work. Advancement obtained through friendship is obtained through favor and what is obtained through favor is of no value.

Never make the mistake of depending on a friend in a business relationship. Often your friend can and will help you. But that sort of help is not the help you want.

Sooner or later, if you are going to get anywhere, you will discover that you must depend on yourself, and yourself alone.

Your friends can advise you, they can sympathize with you, they can if they are honest point out your mistakes to you—provided you are big enough to let them.

But neither by lending you money—or securing you positions or promotions, can they be of any true value to you.

If they are rich and powerful, they will assist you not because of your merits, but because of their liking for you.

Through such assistance you will get a false idea of your importance, of your worth in the world.

And when you wake up some morning and see yourself in your true light you are going to be sadly disillusioned.

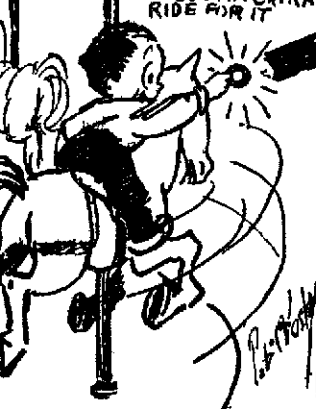

Make friends and keep them. Make them, if you can, among men of different callings, so that you can exchange ideas with them and broaden yourself.

Interest yourself in what they are doing, and interest them in what you are doing. Spend your leisure with them. Enjoy their comradeship. But never depend on them. Friendship was not meant for a ladder by which to climb to higher places in the world. It is too sacred for that.

American Farm Bureau

E. B. Heaton, Director of Dairy Division.

Organization of a national co-operative sales agency for the merchandising of dairy products is nearing completion. The plan for the sales agency was presented to representatives of co-operative dairy marketing associations from Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, meeting in Chicago. It was adopted and an organization committee was immediately named to complete the organization details.

Heaton Is Assigned.

The American Farm Bureau Federation was requested to assign E. B. Heaton, director of the dairy division of its Department of Co-operative Marketing, to the task of directing the organization work. Mr. Heaton was so assigned and started immediately on his task.

The organization plan adopted by the dairymen was drawn by the committee of nine appointed by the American Farm Bureau Federation some months ago. In developing the plan the committee made an exhaustive study of dairy marketing methods not only in this country but also in Europe. At the conclusion of their work their report took the form of a recommendation for a national sales agency.

The plan provides for the orderly marketing of butter, cheese, condensed milk and cream. It provides for the federation of co-operative creameries and cheese factories into district and state groups, these to become members of the central sales agency. It provides for the membership also of pooling milk-marketing organizations to market their surplus products—evaporated and condensed milk, butter, cheese and sweet cream.

The central agency plan provides for statistical and information reports to member co-operatives. Publicity and advertising programs will be inaugurated. The big job however, will be the standardization of dairy products and the creation of national brands. All milk products will be handled through separate departments. Aid in financing member co-operatives will also be given.

The control will be based on a one-man, one-vote plan in order to comply with the national co-operative law. The federations and association members will do the voting, according to farmer membership as of June 1 each year.

The executive control of the central agency will be a board of directors composed of 35 members, elected by districts on the basis of farmer patronage with equal number in each district.

Speaking of the work of the committee of nine, J. T. Williams, chairman, says: "Our plan will, in the first instance, create a national brand for butter, which will be the first step in a national merchandising program. The merchants will find it absolutely necessary to handle this national brand, once we get it advertised and introduced in the way we plan. The individual states will be allowed to use this national brand and the butter coming from these states will be marketed under the name of the company which produced it, with their name in printed on the labels."

Committee of Twelve.

The organization committee of twelve is as follows:

Chairman, J. T. Williams, president Milk Producers' Marketing company, Chicago, Ill.

Secretary, E. B. Heaton, director of Dairy Marketing, American Farm Bureau Federation, 68 East Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

H. B. Nickerson, Elk River, Minn., secretary of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association Inc. and vice president of the Twin City Milk Producers' association.

W. F. Schilling, Northfield, Minn., president of the Twin City Milk Producers' association.

C. Hechtelheimer, Waterloo, Iowa, secretary-manager, Iowa Creamery Secretaries and Managers' association. B. J. Sheridan, Fond du Lac, Wis.,

"What's in a Name?"

By MILDRED MARRAS
Fast about your name by doing a study of its history and significance. Just today and today.

JUDITH

JUDITH is sometimes confused with Edith because of its similarity in ending, but this is an erroneous notion. It really had its origin in the difficult northern names of Gidya, Gytha, which, because it was so difficult, the contraction of Gidya, Judith is purely northern, having longed to the proud dames of Scandinavia, who refused to marry those Harfage unless he was sole king of all Norway. Later, it was given to the semi-Danish ladies of Earl Godwin's family and melted into English. Finally Judith appears as a contraction for Juditha.

Judith, according to the Old Testament, was the heroine of the book of Judith. She was a beautiful Jewish widow, who, when her town was besieged by Holofernes, the general of Nebuchadnezzar, attended him in his tent and when he was in his cups killed him and cut off his head, whereupon the townsmen fell upon the Assyrians and defeated them with great slaughter. Judith has always been a favorite Biblical name.

Perhaps because of this courageous deed of the Biblical heroine, Judith came to mean "praised." Juditha and Juditha are favorite English derivatives. The Italians have a particularly musical version, Gludith. Judy is a diminutive, used generally as a term of affection, except in the instance of the Judy of the famous Punch and Judy show.

Judith has been beloved of authors, but curiously enough her name has been rather neglected by the poets. There seems to be no noteworthy examples of odes to her or her deeds. But the lack has not diminished the popularity of her name in England and America, while the harmonious Italian version has great vogue in that country.

The Jude is Judith's tallmanic stone. Its silky green depths hold promise of freedom from danger and insure fearlessness in its wearer. It is a curative, according to popular superstition, and hence is believed to ward off disease and the fumes of bad luck. Tuesday is Judith's lucky day and 4 her mystic number.

SCHOOL DAYS

By F. A. WALKER

A RAY OF SUNSHINE

IT MATTERS not how lovely we may be, nor how dread life-ills about our little selves may ebb and flow, there is always some one among our friends and acquaintances upon whom we can shed a ray of sunshine.

Some one is living under darker skies than we, longing for encouraging words or cheering smiles; some one is starving for affection which means to him or her a lump of hope; some one is striving to overcome ruinous habits, too weak to hold his or her frail craft on a safe course.

Each one is living in a state of gloom, from which there seems to be no way of escape.

Each one needs a ray of friendship, the blessed boon which if used aright would make the whole world brighter, knit mankind closer in happiness, soothe aching hearts, dry burning tears and bid them cold stares the beggar's outstretched hand.

There is something in soft-sunshine that penetrates the toughest fibre in human nature.

So send forth this mystic cheer far and wide.

Strew flowers over the rugged path of the poor and the sorrowing, the ill and the wretched, the old and the lonely.

Pour sunshine in their hearts and see it illuminate their countenances, ring their feet and tune their tongues to peaceful songs.

Let it shine on every cross and care.

There are hungry hearts everywhere, behind walls of marble and slabs of stone, praying for appreciation and sympathy.

Find one if we can and blow to flame the spark that kindles love. Scatter sunshine across the sea and over the land until it shall turn night to noon tide.

We may speak different dialects, but we can punctuate our sentences with cheer and make ourselves understood, not clumsily nor dimly, but easily and clearly as the sunlight of heaven.

And if we have within us the right spirit we can continue this beneficent work until love shall canopy the earth, faith and hope flood the dark places with glorious light and sorrow turn to gladness. Whatever the number of good deeds we may have done, however far we have flung the sunshine, there will be times in our lives when we shall feel that we have not done enough to merit the peace which is ours—unpeckably sweet and rich beyond price.

KLAN PROTESTS THE YORK STATE LAW BY NIGHT ASSEMBLAGE

Wilmington, Delaware, May 20.—Wilmington was blazing with fiery crosses at midnight in protest staged by the Ku Klux Klan against the Walker Law in New York forbidding disguise in public and requiring registration of secret association members.

A demonstration was staged in the outskirts of this city. As in other instances a cross wrapped with cloth and soaked with oil was blazing steadily. Crosses of various heights were set off throughout the state, a torch applied followed in each case the explosion of two huge bombs. The detonation attracted large crowds of people.

Washington, May 20.—A fiery cross of the Ku Klux Klaners threatened to start a blaze in a lumber yard in Hyattsville, a Washington suburb across the Maryland line early today and the town's fire department was called to put out the blaze.

Seven Points of Supremacy

1. The sole leather used in "FOOT-FITTERS" is of the best quality. Even the insoles are cut from standard outsole leather.
2. "FOOT-FITTERS" are the only shoes in the world having full and sole leather box toes. This feature prevents ripping at the toe, a smooth outer and inner surface.
3. The insoles are channelled so that they fit tightly against the foot. There is no need of room for a cork filler. A small piece of cork to prevent squeaking.
4. The "FOOT-FITTERS" inside counter pocket is of great value for it keeps the foot from slipping and rubbing against the shoe.
5. "FOOT-FITTERS" heels are 1/2 inch longer than generally used. This additional support to the arch and increase in comfort and wear of the shoe.
6. The ramp is reinforced with 8-oz. duck. This absorbs the shock of the foot, keeps the vamp from cracking and holds the shoe in the foot snugly. Built on combination lasts the support the doctor's diagnosis. "FOOT-FITTERS" give comfort, ease and support.
